University Apartments

University Apartments are open to undergraduate CSU students (including transfer students) who have met the first-year live-on requirements (housing.colostate.edu/halls/apply), graduate students, post-doctoral fellows, and visiting scholars. Apartment complexes feature community centers, community kitchens, office services, and various opportunities for involvement.

Apartment communities offer a variety of living options to meet the diverse needs of our campus community. Features include:

- Close proximity—apartments are either on, or within walking distance of campus.
- Easy access to alternative transportation facilities such as bike racks, bus stops, ZipCar locations, as well as purchasable on-site parking permits (colostate.edu/parking/purchase-a-permit/apt-parkingpermits).
- Academic year leases with options to extend for summer.
- A variety of living arrangements, including studios/1-bedroom, multi-room units with roommates (who you select or we select for you), and/or families.
- Option to purchase a University Apartment & Off-Campus Meal Plan, allowing access to CSU’s five on-campus dining centers (housing.colostate.edu/dining/meal-plans).
