DOUBLE COUNT COURSES between my Bachelor's and Master's Degree:

- Students in an approved AMP program may double count one to nine 500-level credits towards both their bachelor's and master's.
- Courses requested to be double-counted will be considered prior admission courses and must have a final grade of a B or better to be proposed towards your graduate degree. After admission credit requirements must still be met and should be discussed with your department.
- Certificates - Double-counted courses, used for both the bachelor's and master's degrees, may also be used toward a certificate program. Due to admission requirements, the application for admission to a certificate program should be completed after the bachelor's degree has been awarded. Apply for admission at gradadmissions.colostate.edu/apply.
